

Igor Bondar
George Czaus

How to catch a Bluebird

Igor Bondar
George Czaus

How to catch a Bluebird

A pictorial guide

“Zolotoye sechenie“
private publishers
2 0 1 5

Who of us in our lifetime doesn't want to catch the Bluebird of happiness?

This book contains a practical and pictorial guide on how to find and entice it.

If you follow the guide closely then getting your hands around the Bluebird of happiness is guaranteed.

Photo by Igor Bondar.

“Zolotoye sechenie“ private publisher.

Copyright © Igor Bondar, 2015

Copyright © George Czaus, 2015

Copyright © Design: „Zolotoye sechenie“, 2015

ISBN 978-5-904020-85-9

*Everyone on earth, in one way or another is trying to find an elusive bluebird,
which is also called happiness or luck.*

*However quite often we come across something entirely different.
Why does that happen?*

*If you think we have a clever answer,
then you are likely mistaken.
However, if you have nothing better to do, you could keep on listening.*

*Okay, okay, you can go home if you want.
Let's move on with those who stayed!*

In order to catch the bluebird, you need to know very well what it likes to eat. Otherwise, how will you entice it?

Remember that the bluebird is an incredible glutton, so you will have to move quickly!

*Then, you will also need
to find out where it lives.*

*After that,
you will need
to think of
a clever plan,
preferably
with a friend...*

*...or a girl-
friend...*

*...or someone else.
It is a lot more difficult to catch
the bluebird when you are alone.*

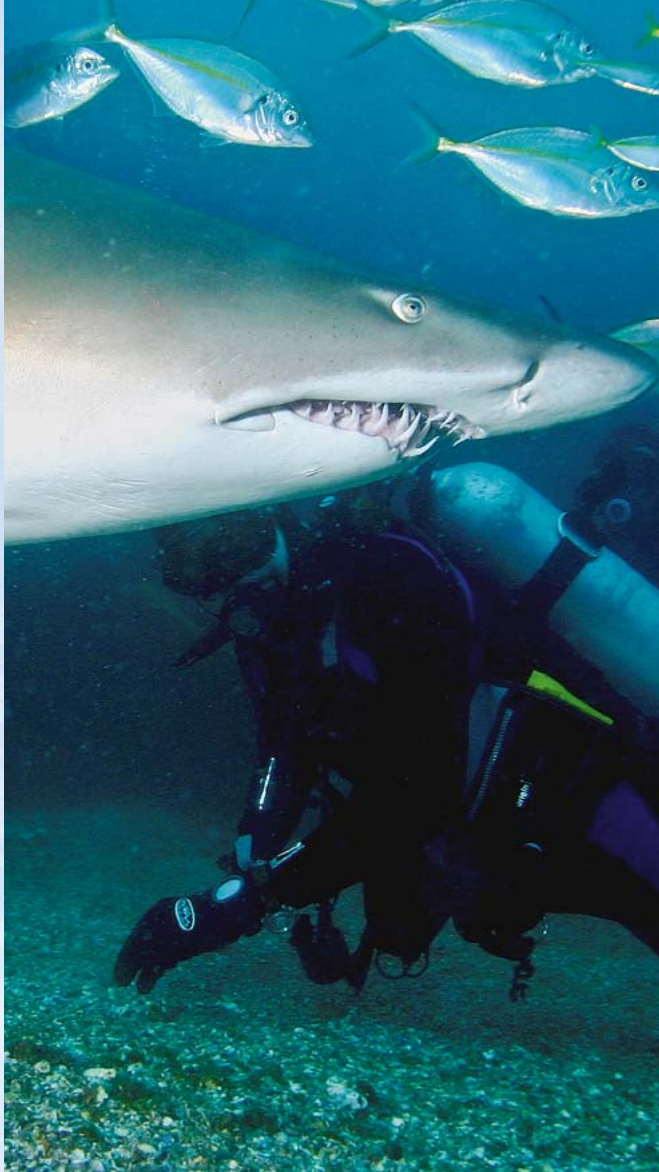

Recently, many catchers appeared who think that catching the bluebird is difficult – easier to catch a blue fish. However, there are plenty of “hidden rocks” in that case.

*Firstly, if your mask got foggy,
you can “catch”
something
entirely different by the tail.*

*And secondly,
there are
quite enough
of catchers
to whom
you yourself
might serve as a “bluebird”.*

*If you don't have your own submarine
like this lucky fellow then...*

...perhaps you should get back to your birds.

So, we have just outlined how to catch the bluebird.

However, there
is another approach to
this issue.
Sometimes, a bluebird comes
to you by itself...What
attracts it?

*First and foremost
it is the love inside us.*

*It likes when
we think
not only of ourselves...*

...but of some other beautiful...

...creations.

It likes us to make friends. Even with those who look maybe a little different.

It also likes us not to forget about dreaming,

...and create beauty on earth...

*It likes when we teach somebody
to play volleyball,*

*...or sincerely care about someone.
(Especially if it is one of the bluebird's distant relatives).*

*It likes when we are not afraid
to jump on the water...*

*...or to stand
upside down
for a little while*

Yes, the little Bluebird of happiness likes these things very much!

*And the Bluebird itself flies
to the places where it can find all of this.*

FREE BOOKS DOWNLOAD
www.DolphinsDivingDreams.org

Igor N. Bondar
George Czaus

How to catch a Bluebird

A pictorial guide

Who of us in our lifetime doesn't want to catch the Bluebird of happiness?

This book contains a practical and pictorial guide on how to find and entice it.

*If you follow the guide closely
then getting your hands around the Bluebird of happiness is guaranteed.*

www.DolphinsDivingDreams.org

978-5-90 020-8

